You Never Told Me

Theme: The importance of telling others about Christ.

Length: 2 pages

People: 3 or 5

Scene: Two guys are standing at the front of the audience/congregation. They are both in front of the podium/pulpit. One is obviously angry and the other is feeling real bad about the situation they are in. They stand silently with these attitudes for about 10 seconds before Lenny breaks the silence.

Lenny: Okay, it was stupid to play golf during a thunder storm.

Mavis: YOUR DARN RIGHT IT WAS STUPID!! (Mimicking) "Oh, it's not going to rain, that's just high fog."

Lenny: Well, they didn't look like thunder clouds.

Mavis: It's bad enough that you talked me into playing golf, but, when you got hit by lightning, did you have to grab onto me?!

(Mavis folds his arms and turns away in anger. There is a brief moment of silence)

Lenny: Mavis.

Mavis: What.

Lenny: Do you remember when you told me your feelings about Christianity and Jesus?

Mavis: Yeah. (Chuckles)

Lenny: Did you ever change your mind?

Angel: (Enters the scene. Walks up behind the pulpit before Mavis has a chance to answer, Mavis stops chuckling) Only two today I see. Must be the new drunk driving laws. Well, let's check to see if your names are written in the Book of Life. (Opens a big Picture book that is very decorated.)

Mavis: Well Lenny, this is it. Now we'll see if all those charity drives and the overnights with them orphan kids paid off or not.

Angel: Leonard Paul Woolcot, your name is in the Book of Life.

Mavis: ALL RIGHT!! We did it! We're in!! All Right!!

Angel: (Puzzled at Mavis's reaction looks closely at the Book to see if he hasn't made a mistake.) Excuse me, I'm sorry but I don't see your name in the book.

You Never Told Me

Mavis: Oh that's Smyth with a "y". It's a common mistake. Look again, you'll find it.

Angel: (Turns a page or two) No, no, I don't see it anywhere in here. I'm sorry but you'll have to go through the door in the back.

Mavis: Wait a minute, that can't be! There must be a mistake! If he's in, then I have to be in. We were raised together, we went to school together, we got married the same day, we've been playing golf together for 20 years! How could he be in the Book and I'm not?

Angel: He accepted Christ as his savior, you didn't.
